

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Contact: Shula Aizer, shulaaizer@gmail.com; 845-338-8131

ISRAEL ADVOCACY COMMITTEE OF THE
JEWISH FEDERATION OF ULSTER COUNTY
INVITES YOU TO SUKKOT CELEBRATION OCTOBER 9

Kingston, NY: Sept. 25, 2017. Join in a fun evening of Israeli foods, songs and folk dancing in the Sukkah at Congregation Emanuel of the Hudson Valley, on Monday, October 9th, 7:00pm at 243 Albany Ave, Kingston, NY. The event, sponsored by the Israel Advocacy Committee of the Jewish Federation of Ulster County, features delicious Israeli foods, folk dances and songs, led by Rabbi Yael Romer and Cantor Bob Cohen. Rabbi Romer will also talk about the significance of the Lulav, an ancient symbol consisting of fronds of the date palm, myrtle and willow trees, and the etrog, a citron. Sukkot, known as the Festival of the Tabernacles, is a celebration of the harvest. The event is FREE and family friendly. In case of rain, the event will move inside the synagogue. For further information, email shulaaizer@gmail.com or call the Federation office at 845-338-8131.

Arlene Gould, Executive Coordinator
Jewish Federation of Ulster County
1 Albany Ave. Suite G-10
Kingston, NY 12401
845-338-8131; www.ucjf.org