ANNUAL YOM HASHOAH (HOLOCAUST REMEMBRANCE) SERVICE
WEDNESDAY, MAY 1, 7:00 PM
HOSTED BY CONGREGATION KOL HAI AT DEYO HALL IN NEW PALTZ

April 9, 2019: The community Holocaust remembrance service (Yom HaShoah) sponsored by the Jewish Federation of Ulster County will be hosted this year by Congregation KOL HAI: Hudson Valley Jewish Renewal, led by musician and spiritual leader Shir Yaakov Feit. It will take place on Wednesday evening, May 1st at 7:00 pm at Deyo Hall, 6 Broadhead Avenue in New Paltz. All are welcome.

This solemn candlelight service provides an opportunity to remember and mourn those who perished in the Holocaust, as well as celebrate the resilience of second-generation survivors and all whose lives have been affected by the Holocaust.

Federation volunteer and second-generation survivor Charlotte Tusch Scherer, Chair of the event, has assembled a group of area spiritual leaders, artists, performers and representatives from local congregations and communities. Songs, stories and prayers will be shared. The event is free and light refreshments will be served following the candlelight service. For further information, please contact the Federation office at 845-338-8131; email: info@ucjf.org; or visit: www.ucjf.org. ###
